MEMBERSHIP IN CHILDREN'S RIGHTS COUNCIL OF JAPAN

CHILDREN'S RIGHTS COUNCIL OF JAPAN is a children's advocacy organization working to protect and ensure the child's rights to both parents. We were founded on May 5, 1995 and are the first international chapter of Children's Rights Council (www.crckids.org), a 501 (c) (3) U.S. based non-profit. We work as volunteers and rely entirely on membership dues, donations, and purchases from our online store to help support our operating expenses. CRC of Japan will accept members worldwide. Payments can be made either in Japan or the U.S., as follows:

JAPAN PAYMENTS: Please submit the membership application, along with Japanese Yen 5,000 for each membership, by registered mail ("genkin kakitome"), to the attention of: Mr. David Brian Thomas, 4-18-15-903 Kamikitazawa, Setagaya-ku Tokyo 156 Japan.

U.S. PAYMENTS: Please mail the membership application, along with either a U.S. bank check, or an international postal money order ("kokusai yubin kawase" available at larger post offices in Japan), in the amount of $50 for each membership, made out to "CRC of Japan" to the attention of: Mr. Walter Benda, P.O. Box 583, Max Meadows, VA 24360 U.S.A.

Donations to "CRC of Japan" are also gladly accepted, and may be tax-deductible under U.S. law (contact us for more details).

To become a member of Children's Rights Council of Japan, please complete this form and submit it with annual membership dues of $50 (for payment in the U.S.A.) or YEN 5,000 (for payment in Japan)
